

Tacoma Modern Quilt Guild

Meeting Minutes

December 15, 2022

A social time and holiday treats were enjoyed prior to the starting of the meeting by Co-president Karen Steven who welcomed everyone to the celebration. Special thank you to Roxanne Carter who provided cute holiday gnome-topped water bottles for attendees. Twenty-one members were present, and one joined via Zoom.

Compression pillows, stuffing and needle and thread were provided to those who wanted to stitch during the meeting.

Birthday raffle was held, with 7 winners chosen.

1. Committee Report:
 - a. Block of the Month - Support Group Bra Block
 - i. Patterns distributed for January BOM, "Bra Block." Fat Quarter Shop donated 20 copies of the pattern to use for the Relay for Life quilt in May. Any additional blocks will be used for a second quilt to support Breast Cancer Awareness. Members are asked to use pinks and marigold colors for the blocks.
 - b. Swap – Sewing Notions Organizer
 - i. Participants swapped and shared a variety of fun and clever sewing notions organizers. Fun to see the creativity and talent of members.
2. Upcoming Guild Events
 - a. Zoom hand sew night, January 3 6:30-8:30
 - b. National Quilt Day, March 18, In-person Sew-in at Algona Community Center
 - c. Spring Retreat at Dumas Bay Retreat Center, March 23-26. Signups available on the website, tacomamqg.com
 - d. Next meeting January 19. Social time 6:30, meeting begins at 7 pm
3. Show and Tell
4. Enjoy holiday treats!