

TMQG General Meeting - March 2021

Call to Order

- LaDauna called the meeting to order
- Connie presented this month's icebreaker: What is the oldest piece of fabric that you have?
- Cate motioned to approve February's General Meeting notes - Julie Arthur seconded
- Julie Arthur presented the Financial Review
 - Budget proposal for 2021
 - $5699.20 coming into 2021
 - Proposed income of about $7000 including retreat, classes, etc.
 - Proposed expenses for about $9000 including administration, meeting expenses, events, and other miscellaneous expenses
 - Budget includes Zoom for continued use throughout the remainder of the year
 - Plan for holiday party
 - Plan for Camp Burton in the Fall
 - Potential to go into the hole about $2000 with budget, but income we have going into 2021 will offset these additional expenses
 - Leigh Ann moved to approve budget - Sharon and Cate seconded
 - All approved budget, none opposed
- Membership - Julie Arthur
 - 42 members
 - May gain some more members later in the year

General

- BOM
 - Karen will be doing tutorials for the remaining leaf and x+ blocks for International Quilt Day
- Challenges
 - Color of the Year will be projects will be presented at the April meeting
- Compression Pillows
 - Will be sewing charms on soon and doing a drop off soon as well
- Charity Quilts
 - The camp at Seven Stars/YMCA will not be happening this year, but the foundation will be sponsoring another Seven Stars camp
 - Alternatively, we could send to a foster children group
 - Group prefers to keep out quilts to be local
 - Cate will be reaching out to the foster group for donating
 - Kate will be reaching out to Fisher House on JBLM to see if they can use any quilts for the military hospital/medical care.

TMQG General Meeting - March 2021

Upcoming Events (presented Karen)

- International Quilt Day this upcoming Saturday, 3/20
- Next Hand-Sewing Night: 4/6
- April Virtual Retreat 4/16-4/18
- La Fin du Monde has been kicked off
- Saroy postcard talk is currently being scheduled for a future meeting
- Nicole discussed La Fin du Monde
 - Young and Millennial Quilters - (mentioned) let Nicole know if you're interested in attending an event
 - Not too late to join La Fin!
- LaDauna mentioned the potential for upcoming in-person meetings
 - A survey email will be sent out to get an idea of interest in starting in-person meetings again
- Wheel of Names! (presented by Karen)
 - Winners: Julie Aiken, Roxie, Amy

Closeout (presented by LaDauna)

- Sew and Tell
 - Closing remarks
- Next meeting will be April 15, 2021